OVERVIEW

Goodwill Career Education is an arm of Goodwill Industries of Middle Georgia & the CSRA that provides educational and training programs to those seeking “a hand-up” in the career world. Goodwill Career Education works with traditional students seeking additional learning opportunities as well as individuals with employment barriers that are physical, cognitive or economic/environmental in nature. Specific service programs may be available for individuals with disabilities, individuals who are homeless and those who are economically challenged. Goodwill Career Education also works with returning veterans transitioning back into the civilian workforce. The goal, as with all Goodwill programs, is to assist individuals with the skills and resources required to garner and retain competitive employment. These courses were designed to assist individuals transition to a new career or advance in the career in which already employed.

Goodwill Industries of Middle Georgia and the CSRA is an autonomous member of Goodwill Industries International (the membership association of autonomous members), which has a rich, century long history. Dr. Edgar J. Helms, a Methodist minister, founded Goodwill in 1902 in Boston, Massachusetts. Dr. Helms collected used household goods and clothing in wealthier areas of the city, then trained and hired unemployed people to mend and repair the used goods as a middle skills training initiative. The goods were then resold, and proceeds paid the workers’ wages and were invested in the development of additional education and skills training programs. The system worked, and the Goodwill philosophy of “a hand up, not a hand out” was born. Dr. Helms’ vision set an early course for what has become a $6 billion nonprofit organization with 178 member organizations in the United States, Canada and around the world.

PHILOSOPHY

Goodwill Industries believes work plays a critical role in the ability of individuals to achieve desirable life outcomes. The founder of Goodwill Industries, Dr. Edgar J. Helms, believed that individuals wanted and needed a hand up, not a hand out, and his basic philosophy set an “abundant living” vision since 1902. Moreover, Goodwill believes that work is better caught than taught, and it provides opportunities for individuals to “catch” a solid work ethic. Through work, individuals are enabled to assume the role of the worker in addition to other roles within the community. Work forms a cornerstone of a person’s relationship with other people and is critical for preventing and minimizing social problems.

To this end, the faculty, staff and administration at Goodwill Career Education believe that access to quality education and relevant hands-on experience are the first steps to career and personal success. As a result, the development and maintenance of training programs and related services focus upon maximizing career opportunities and improving the lives of individuals by helping them acquire the skills they need for success in the workforce.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

FIRE

The fire alarm and strobe lights will be activated in case of fire or fire drill. Students and all Goodwill of Middle Georgia & the CSRA personnel should evacuate the building according to evacuation procedures posted in each area. Students should wait at the designated place until given the signal to return to the building. Both the need to evacuate the building and the fact that it is safe to return will relayed over the emergency alert system.

BOMB THREAT

If a bomb threat is received, members of the administrative staff will notify each classroom of the need to evacuate the building using the posted evacuation procedure. When the building has been declared safe, students and personnel will be allowed to return to the building.

TORNADO

In case of a tornado or tornado drill, the instructors will be notified of the need to evacuate the classes and the need to report to the shelter areas. The need to evacuate to the shelter areas will also be transmitted over the emergency alert system. When the danger has passed, an announcement will be made over the intercom system, or an announcement of alternate plans will be made. In case of power failure, a member of the administrative staff will notify the instructor of proper procedures.

EMERGENCY CLOSING

If it is necessary for Goodwill Career Education to be closed due to inclement weather or other emergencies, local radio and television stations will be notified. Notification will also be sent to all students via telephone, e-mail and/or social media. If a closure is required during the class day, it will be announced through the faculty and staff.

ACTIVE SHOOTER

All students are provided with a thumb drive during orientation that contains a video for best practices during an active shooter. In the video, students are encouraged to first try to safely escape. If a safe escape is not possible, lock all doors, block the door and hide away from the door. Instructors are trained and will guide their class.

OUTSIDE ASSIGNMENTS AND STUDY EXPECTATIONS

Students may find the certificate programs offered at Goodwill Career Education to be intensive and rigorous. It is therefore expected that all assignments will be submitted by students by the designated deadline. Students are responsible for reading any study materials issued by their instructors. The amount of time that students devote to out of class study time per week will vary according to the individual student's abilities; however, it is expected that students will study on their own or in small group settings as a daily activity. The course syllabus contains concrete information on in-class and out-of-class learning activities and expectations.

ACADEMIC AND LEARNING SUPPORT SERVICES

HCE offers various resources to assist students with their academic success. Students are encouraged to form peer study groups. Students may also contact the Academic Achievement Center located at 3145 Washington Road, Augusta, GA for access to additional print and online resources in addition to the materials provided as part of their course. ATTENDANCE AND TARDINESS POLICY

Attendance is of utmost importance in short term, continuing education programs to ensure students have the opportunity to obtain the training and knowledge presented in the course. Promptness and dependability are qualities that are very important in all occupations. Students should begin to develop these qualities the day they begin their training. Attendance is taken daily in class by the instructor and recorded in student and course records. Attendance records are maintained by the Registrar as part of the student's permanent academic record. Because of this, Goodwill Career Education has set forth the following attendance policy for all students to successfully complete the program.

- You must attend a minimum of 80% of all classes to receive a certificate of completion.
- Classes which meet five (5) or less sessions require 100% attendance to meet this requirement.
- Attending lab classes in certain programs is mandatory in order to qualify for certification exams. Not attending all lab classes may prevent a student from passing a class when specific skill performance standards are required for completion.

CERTIFICATION

Students are encouraged to seek certifications in their fields of study to enhance their professional credentials and make them more competitive in the job market. Certifications generally require that a student successfully complete a certification examination. The appropriate professional certificates and information regarding the recommended certifications are listed in the program description section of this catalog. Students will not automatically receive certification upon completion of their program of study at Goodwill Career Education. Although Goodwill Career Education will prepare students to take various certification exams, it is the student's responsibility to understand these requirements. Goodwill Career Education will make every attempt to provide accurate information about test dates and fees for exams. Fees for the initial attempt at some certification exams are included in the program cost. The student is responsible for the fee of any subsequent attempt(s).

CHANGES IN PROGRAMS OR POLICIES

Goodwill Career Education has the right, at its discretion, to make changes to program content, materials, schedules or sequences of courses in programs in the interest of improving the student's education. Goodwill Career Education certifies that the information contained in this publication is current and correct, but it is subject to change without notice, and does not constitute a binding agreement on the part of Goodwill Career Education. If changes are made to the information in this catalog, informational addenda will be provided. Reentering students must enter under any changed information contained in a new addendum or new addenda.

GRADING SYSTEM

S (SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION)

A S grade means you have fulfilled the course requirements as outlined by the instructor. Your instructor's requirements may include expectations around attendance, participation and the completion of assignments.

U (UNSUCCESSFUL COMPLETION)

An U grade means you have not met the course requirements as outlined by the instructor.

I (INCOMPLETE)

An I grade is given only when the student provides satisfactory proof to the instructor of why the work cannot be completed on time due to illness or other circumstances beyond the student's control.
